CUBBAR is a township and small village, formed into a parish in 1869, from that of Baslow St. Anne; it includes the townships of Calver and Froggatt, and is 5 miles north-east from Bakewell and 3 from Grindleford station, on the Dore and Chinley section of the Midland railway, in the Western division of the county, High Peak hundred, Bakewell union, petty sessional division and county court district, rural deanery of Eyam, arch-deaconry of Derby and diocese of Southwell. The church of All Saints, built in 1868, is a small edifice of stone, in the Early English style, consisting of chancel, nave of three bays, south aisle, south porch, and a small western turret containing 1 bell. There are 300 sittings. The register dates from the year 1868. The living is a vicarage, net yearly value £226, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Baslow St. Anne, and held since 1870 by the Rev. Thomas Fosbrooke Salt B.A. of Oriel College, Oxford: the vicarage is on the hillside immediately above the church. Here is a Reformed Wesleyan chapel. Hulme Cliff College is an institution in connection with the "Regions Beyond" Missionary Union; about 30 young men here receive one year's training, and are afterwards transferred for two years at Harley House, Bow road, London E, before entering on missionary work. The Duke of Rutland K.G., G.C.B., P.C. is lord of the manor and principal landowner. The land consists of grazing and moor. The soil is loamy, with a considerable mixture of gritstone; subsoil, sand.

CALVER is a village and township, 2 miles north-west from Baslow St. Anne. The charities amount to about £2 8s. per annum. Here is a Primitive Methodist chapel built in 1860. The extensive cotton spinning and doubling mills of Messrs. Tolson and Gibb are at Calver bridge, in a sheltered spot, on the river Derwent, which is crossed by a modern stone bridge of three arches to Stony Middleton. Charles Stephen Leslie esq. of Balquhain, Aberdeenshire, N.B. is lord of the manor and owns all the land. The soil is gravelly loam, on limestone. The chief crop is hay, and some land is used for grazing.

FROGGATT is a township and village, 3 miles north from Baslow St. Anne, and 7 north-north-east from Bakewell, on the east bank of the Derwent, here crossed by an ancient stone bridge of two arches. Froggatt Edge is a steep ridge of gritstone rock, rising to a great height to the eastward. Here is a Wesleyan chapel built in 1834. The Duke of Rutland K.G., G.C.B. is lord of the manor and principal landowner. The soil varies, some of it is loamy and a portion clay; subsoil, gritstone. The chief crops are oats and hay.
